IN ORDER CO.

Emergency Cards & Quick Sheets

Print, cut, and carry. The binder's best friend.

This binder is a personal organizer. It is not a will, a power of attorney or a medical directive, and it is not legal, medical or financial advice. Laws differ by state and country: ask a local professional for legal documents.

IN ORDER CO.

How to use the Kit

Fill in on screen, print on card stock, cut along the boxes.

- [ ] Wallet card: behind your ID
- [ ] Door / fridge card: for anyone who enters your home
- [ ] Pet alert card: inside your front door
- [ ] ER sheet: one page, folded in your bag

SECTION A

Wallet card

Two copies: one for your wallet, one for your bag.

In case of emergency call (name):

Phone:

Second contact and phone:

Allergies:

Medications:

Conditions:

My pet is home alone, call:

(copy) In case of emergency call (name):

(copy) Phone:

(copy) Allergies:

(copy) My pet is home alone, call:

SECTION B

Door / fridge card

For a neighbor, a paramedic or a pet sitter.

My name:

My person (name, phone):

My doctor:

Where my medical sheet is:

Pets in this home (names):

Who takes care of them (name, phone):

SECTION C

Pet alert card

Tape it inside your door or on your keyring.

Pet name(s):

Food and amount:

Medication:

Vet:

Emergency pet carer (name, phone):

SECTION D

ER sheet

One page. Hand it over at the hospital.

Full name and date of birth:

Allergies:

Medications and doses:

Conditions:

Doctor and phone:

Insurance (last 4):

My person (name, phone):

Authorized to speak with doctors:

This binder is a personal organizer. It is not a will, a power of attorney or a medical directive, and it is not legal, medical or financial advice. Laws differ by state and country: ask a local professional for legal documents.